NORTHEAST TENNESSEE REGIONAL PUBLIC TRANSIT

ANYONE CAN RIDE!
LET US TAKE YOU!

Serving Carter, Greene, Hancock,
Hawkins, Johnson, Sullivan,
Unicoi and Washington Counties

WHO CAN RIDE?

Anyone can ride! NET Trans is your link for regional public transportation. Service includes door-to-door non-emergency transportation for anyone requesting a ride in our service area. Our fleet is equipped with wheelchair lifts able to serve our customers with disabilities.

AREAS SERVED

NET Trans is a regional public transit system that provides transportation to citizens in an eight-county area: Carter, Greene, Hancock, Hawkins, Johnson, Sullivan, Unicoi and Washington. We also provide service to urbanized areas outside city limits for Bristol, Kingsport, and Johnson City.

SAFETY

Before being offered a position with NET Trans, prospective drivers must complete a functional abilities test, pre-employment drug screen, National Criminal Background check and a DOT physical. Once hired, the drivers are subject to random drug testing. Each driver goes through a week of intensive training, proceeded by on the road training with a Certified Safety Driver. Some topics covered include customer service and passenger sensitivity; passenger, vehicle and driver safety; defensive driving and proper wheelchair securement.

HOW CAN I RIDE?

Public rides are scheduled on a first come, first serve basis. We require reservations be made by 12:00 PM on the business day before the requested trip. If you need a trip outside our area, please call the Call Center to discuss your needs. NET Trans is happy to provide door-to-door service. All drivers are required to assist each passenger in and out of the vehicle.

Transportation may be paid for by cash, credit/debit card, check, or pre-paid tickets. Rides may be scheduled through our website www.nettrans.org or by calling our Call Center at 423-461-8233 between the hours of 7:00am to 6:00pm Monday through Friday.
